MINUTES

- I. Call to order: Paula Mintek called the meeting to order at 6:30 pm.
- II. Attendance: Paula Mintek, Greg Penny, Cyndi Reed, Lori Perkins, Bert Brouwer, Becky Rininger and Betty McDaniel
- III. Approval of Minutes from October 5, 2015: Lori, supported by Becky, motioned to approve the minutes. The minutes were approved.

Old Business:

- A. Cemetery fee changes: The Commission reviewed the proposed fee changes and revised as follows: Reduce the non-resident grave space purchase from $1200 to $800; half grave spaces from $900 to $400. Increase all Saturday funerals to be $200 more than M-F before 3:00 pm. Reduce all burial fees by $100 for burials without a tent setup. Remove the fee for tree and shrub removals and remove the fee for foundation removals. Cyndi motioned, supported by Lori, to recommend the approval of the revised changes to the cemetery fees in the City's Municipal Policy. The motion passed.

- B. Rossman Park, basketball or pickle ball: After further discussion on Pickle Ball and Basketball the following motions were made:

Cyndi, supported by Lori, motioned to recommend converting the Rossman Park tennis court into pickle ball courts and move forward with pricing the costs of pickle ball courts to be presented at budgeting time. The motion passed.

Cyndi motioned, supported by Greg, to estimate the cost of adding a basketball court on the unused asphalt at the Sports Complex (previously the skateboard park) to be presented at budgeting time. The motion passed

- C. Disc Golf: Greg shared a map with a potential 9-hole disc golf course at Jaycee Park. The Commission is still interested in the idea of a disc golf course in the park. Paula, supported by Cyndi, motioned to recommend working up a cost estimate for a 9-hole disc golf course. The motion was approved.

IV. New Business

V. Comments

- Betty shared some pictures of a relatively simple ice skate rink taken by Bob Carlie on a vacation to Norway.

VI. Adjournment –The meeting was adjourned at 7:30 pm. The next meeting is scheduled for December 7, 2015.
